

MA Scholarships in North Korean Studies

International Institute of Korean Studies
University of Central Lancashire, UK

The International Institute of Korean Studies (IKSU) at the University of Central Lancashire (UCLan) is offering MA scholarships in North Korean Studies for 2023/24 academic year. We seek highly motivated students who have excellent academic grades at undergraduate level and are committed to high quality critical study of North Korea.

Applications are open to students of any nationality, and the scholarship is for the value of partial tuition fee waiver (£7,500). Successful candidates will be expected to work with our academics as research/ project assistants (3 hours per week).

IKSU was established in 2014 as a multidisciplinary hub of research, teaching and public policy in the study of contemporary Korea. IKSU is based in the School of Humanities, Language and Global Studies at UCLan, bringing together university wide research expertise on global Korea in the context of development, political economy, anthropological discourse, society and culture, language, and international relations surrounding both Koreas.

Closing date for receipt of applications: 3 July 2023

Applications should be made at https://www.uclan.ac.uk/study_here/postgraduate/apply.php by selecting following entries:

- Level of Study: Postgraduate Taught
- Mode of Study: Full Time
